EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
BCJ - Quarterly Monitoring & Compliance Report
(October – December 2015)

During the period October – December 2015, forty six (46) Notices of Breach of Licence were issued to two (2) broadcast radio licensees, and forty four (44) to subscriber television licensees. The number of breaches were thirty five (35) more than that of the previous quarter, July - September - 2015.

One hundred and ninety three (193) contacts were recorded for the period October – December 2015. Of this number, two (2) were complaints, which resulted in investigations of broadcast radio operators. One of the complaints concerned copyright infringement, while the other related to content standards. There was a decrease of four (4) when compared with the previous quarter, July– September 2015.

The remaining one hundred (191) contacts consisted of queries, requests and comments about other operational issues pertaining to licensed operators and the work of the Commission.

Nine (9) subscriber television licensees were inspected during the period under review, to determine their compliance with technical standards.

In relation to the payment of annual licence fees, twenty two (22) subscriber television (STV) operators, or 48% of all licensees, paid in full; nine (9) or 19% made partial payments and fifteen (15) or 33%, were non-compliant. There was an increase of two (2) in the number of full payments recorded, when compared to the previous quarter. The number of licensees who made partial payments increased by three (3) and there was a decrease of five (5) in the number of non-compliant licensees.
