Broadcasting Commission Saddened by Passing of Chad Young

The Broadcasting Commission joins the media fraternity in expressing sadness at the passing of Chad Young, Chairman of the Grove Broadcasting Company, operators of IRIE FM & ZIP103 FM. Under his leadership, IRIE FM and ZIP 103 FM maintained a leading presence on the airwaves and were active participants in the Commission's quarterly meetings with broadcast licensees.

Chairman of the Commission, Professor Hopeton Dunn, in expressing regret, said Chad Young's death was a sad loss to the broadcasting industry, as he was a promising, youthful and enterprising media entrepreneur. "Although gone too soon, this 27 year old manager of one of our leading media houses has made a valuable contribution to the sector during his short lifetime." Professor Dunn said.

The Broadcasting Commission expresses profound condolences to his family and to the staff at IRIE FM & ZIP 103 FM radio stations.
